AND WHEREAS the objections or suggestions received from such persons on the said draft notification have been considered by the Government and also sub-rule (5) of rule 3 of the POCSO Rules, 2020, the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015, the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act, 2012, the subordinate rules framed thereunder, the directions issued by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Model Rules, the School Safety and Hostel Guidelines issued by the National Commission for Protection of Child Rights (NCPCR), the National Policy for Children, 2013, and the National Plan of Action for Children, 2016;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Government of Gujarat hereby publishes the Gujarat State Child Protection Policy, namely: —

Preamble:

All children deserve a happy childhood and the opportunity to lead a dignified life safe from violence, exploitation, neglect, deprivation and discrimination. The Constitution of India recognizes children as equal right holders and grants highest priority for their protection and well-being. India is also signatory to the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC), the Constitution of India and the national policy for children, 2013 has a strong legal framework to protect children which include the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act 2015; the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) with amendment in 2021 (JJ Act); the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act 2020 (POCSO) and Rules 2020; Pre-Conception and Pre-Natal Diagnostic Techniques (PCPNDT) Act 1994; the Commission for Protection of Child Rights Act 2005; the Right of Children to Free and Compulsory Education Act, 2009; Prohibition of Child Marriage Act, 2006; with amendment in 2016; the Child and Adolescent Labour (Prohibition and Regulation) Amendment Act, 2016; IT and Digital Personal Data Protection Act 2023; Rights of Persons with Disabilities Act 2016; National Disaster Management Guidelines: School Safety Policy, 2013; Mental Healthcare Act; HIV and AIDS (Prevention and Control) Act; Transgender Persons (Protection of Rights) Act; Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023; Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023 and judgements of Hon. Supreme Court / Hon. High Courts related to this subject.

The Policy also reflects India's obligations under the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Child (UNCRC), the Convention on the Rights of Persons with Disabilities, CEDAW and other relevant international human rights instruments. It further aligns with the National Policy for Children, 2013, the National Plan of Action for Children, 2016 and Sustainable Development Goals.

The Government of Gujarat recognizes the rights of all children and the importance of upholding these rights for the achievement of Gujarat's and India's growth and development. The State is committed to ensuring protection of all children within the State, based on a rights-based approach, which implies promoting the safety and security of children within the framework of their legally recognized rights including children's right to participation.

1. Short Title:

- 1) This policy may be called the Gujarat State Child Protection Policy, 2026.
- 2) It shall come into force on the date of its publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Vision:

- a) To create a society in Gujarat where every child is safe, respected, protected, empowered and facilitated to realize his/her full potential, ensuring his/her rights to safety, education, health, and holistic development through participation and empowerment.
- b) Every child in the State, without discrimination on grounds of religion, caste, gender, social, economic, political, cultural or geographical background shall be protected from all forms of violence, abuse, neglect, and exploitation, and shall have equitable access to child protection services across all sectors.
- c) To align the vision with Viksit Bharat and Viksit Gujarat, emphasizing social protection and development for all children, and also emphasizing inclusivity and child rights.

3. Key Objectives of the Policy:

- a) To create robust, child-centric and effective child protection mechanism.
- b) To build the capacity of institutions, law enforcement and caregivers to provide effective and child friendly care and protection.
- c) Promote and strengthen inter-departmental, inter-agency and multi-sectoral convergence and accountability.

4. Scope of the Policy:

- a) The Gujarat State Child Protection Policy shall apply to all government departments, statutory bodies, government agencies, NGOs, civil societies, institutions, and individuals who come into direct or indirect contact with children, including Corporate and Business Houses, Industries, Media Organizations, Resident Welfare Associations, Religious and Faith-based organizations, Child Care Institutions, and all areas where children live, learn, play, receive care, or participate.

- b) It also covers children in vulnerable situations, including children in need of care and protection, children in conflict with law, children with disabilities, migrant children, orphans, children belonging to Scheduled Tribes, Scheduled Castes and other marginalized communities, children affected by trafficking, children in street situations, children in institutional and alternative care, transgender and intersex children, children affected by HIV /AIDS or Chronic illness, children affected by natural disasters, and children in conflict zones.
- c) This Policy applies to everyone within the jurisdiction of the State of Gujarat.

5. Definitions:

- a) “Child” means any person under the age of 18 years or one who has not completed eighteen years of age as per Section 2 (k) of the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015.
- b) “Child Protection” means the prevention of, and response to, exploitation, abuse, neglect, harmful practices and violence against children.
- c) “Child Protection System” comprises human resources, finance, laws and policies, governance, monitoring and data collection as well as protection and response services and care management of children. It includes different actors – children, families, communities, those working at subnational or national level and those working internationally.

Under Integrated Child Protection Scheme (now as Mission Vatsalya), Child Protection encompasses protecting children from actual or potential risks to their life, dignity, development and well-being; reducing their vulnerability to harm; preventing exclusion from social protection systems; and ensuring timely access to care, protection, rehabilitation and justice whenever required. Unless otherwise specified, definitions contained in the Juvenile Justice (Care and Protection of Children) Act, 2015 and applicable child related laws shall apply.

6. Guiding Principles:

The Policy is based on the principle of Zero tolerance of child abuse and exploitation. Additionally, the following principles should be applied in framing child protection policy:
